

Dear Friend,

On Tuesday November 2 we will elect a new State Auditor. There is a clear choice in the race for State Auditor. Suzanne Bump has been a leader in both the public and private sectors and is the only candidate who has a vision for using the Auditor's office to make real changes in state government and hold state agencies accountable for how they spend our hard-earned tax dollars.

We know Suzanne Bump will do these things as State Auditor because she has done them before. As Secretary of Labor and as a State Representative Suzanne Bump has challenged the status quo, reformed state agencies, and gotten results that have saved taxpayers money and made government work better. Now we need your help in electing Suzanne Bump this coming Tuesday!

The recession challenges us to watch every dollar we spend – that includes government. By working smarter, government can save money and deliver better services.

Leadership. Accountability. Results.

Please join me in voting for Suzanne Bump for State Auditor on Tuesday, November 2, 2010.

And please forward this message to 10 friends and ask them to vote for Suzanne Bump on November 2, 2010. For more information, please visit the website at www.suzannebump.com.
